

RULE 2.
RESERVATION OF DISCRETION.

The court reserves the authority to interpret, suspend or modify these rules in individual cases on motion of a party for good cause shown, or its own motion in the interests of justice or the efficient operation of the court.
